SCHOOL RE-ENTRY PLAN

The Alberta government announced their Re-entry Plan for the 2020-21 school year to allow schools and parents to prepare for learning while putting student and staff safety first. The Alberta government's Scenario 1 is the preferred and likely plan where students return to daily in-school classes in September (near normal with health measures).

Black Gold School Division, has been planning and updating our BGSD 2020-2021 SCHOOL RE-ENTRY PLAN Information for Parents & Guardians for September, 2020.

Highlights and details of the Alberta government's Re-entry Plan are available on their website.

REGISTRATION OF NEW STUDENTS & RETURNING STUDENTS

All new families are to register their child(ren) online via PowerSchool Registration which is available on the Black Gold School Division website at: New Student Registration

If you are interested in registering your child for the upcoming 2020/21 school year, please contact the school @ 780-941-3924 for an appointment. We will be booking intake appointments starting on August 26-31. Please ensure that you bring your child's latest report card and birth certificate to your intake appointment. Confirmation of registration will occur after a meeting with the Principal.

Students who were registered in Black Gold School Division in 2019-2020 and are returning to a Black Gold School in 2020-2021, should NOT complete a new student registration form. Instead, they could complete an online Student Enrolment Verification Form, through their PowerSchool Parent Portal. The form will be available prior to September 1, 2020.

CONFIRMATION OF ATTENDING IN-SCHOOL CLASSES OR LEARNING AT HOME

BGSD will distribute a form via SchoolMessenger, for parents to declare which learning experience is best for each of their children and in doing so, make a 5 month (one semester) commitment until the end of January.
